FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

The Clothes I Wear

A simple story about Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3, by Rabbi Jeff Glickman

- 4 There are many clothes in my closet.
They are all different.
- 5 When it is warm, I wear shorts.
When it rains, I wear a jacket.
I love my sandals, but I don't wear them when it is snowy.
- 6 There is a time to dress up and a time to get muddy,
A time to wear pj's and a time to wear the soccer uniform.
- 7 A time to wear a fuzzy sweater so people will want to hug me.
A time to wear a big hat so no one sees me.
- 7 A time to wear a smile and a time to wear tears.
God made a time to wear everything. Everything becomes beautiful, if it is the right time for it.

Rabbi G

HOW ARE YOU PREPARING FOR THE HIGH HOLY DAYS?

How are you getting ready for the High Holidays? Before this year, I never really gave it much thought. But as it is my second year on the Board, I'm getting a better appreciation for the many pieces of the puzzle that come together to make the holidays truly something special. You'd think that after celebrating Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur for thousands of years, we'd have it down to a science. To some extent, we do. But it takes a lot of effort from many people to pull it all together.

The Religious Practices Committee is probably the first group within our Temple family that kicks off the planning process. They start by laying the foundation even before the start of the summer: understanding key dates, determining times for services and figuring out a list of potential honors. That gets passed to the Board for review. All of the details like guest policies, oneg responsibilities, parking rules, establishing a set-up/clean-up crew and many more continue to be ironed out over the next few months.

This year, we get a little extra time since Rosh Hashanah is in October and doesn't coincide with the hectic "back to school" season. But that still won't stop us from scrambling. Rabbi Glickman is busy preparing his sermon, Cantor Harris is reviewing the music, while our President, Mark Abrahamson drafts his New Year Greetings. Membership is organizing a Kehila Konnection for us to mingle with old and new friends and they're getting the word out with all sorts of new marketing materials. The Social Action Committee is expanding our ties as a community with Food-share. Gary Ruchin and I are dusting off our Shofars and making sure to practice a few times before the big day. And of course, many of our families are finalizing their travel plans, guest lists and meal selections. So, what are YOU doing to get ready? And where will you be for these holidays? We hope you can be with our Temple Family at Temple Beth Hillel.
Shana Tova !

TORAH PORTIONS

R'eih—Deuteronomy 11:26-16:17 — You shall not hesitate to give, nor murmur when you do give; because you shall know who is the good repayer of the hire. You shall not turn away from him that is in want, but you shall share all things with your brother, and shall not say that they are your own; for if you are partakers in that which is immortal, how much more in things which are mortal? (Didache 4:7-8)

Shof'tim- Deuteronomy 16:18-21:9 — The commandment for the king to write a copy of the Torah demonstrates the work of Messiah. He Himself is the Word made flesh. He is the copy of the Torah in human form. Furthermore, He writes a copy of the Torah as He writes the Torah upon our hearts. The Torah of King Messiah is written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of human hearts (2 Corinthians 3:3).

Ki Teitzei —Deuteronomy 21:10-25:19 — Rabbi Meir said, There is a parable about this matter. To what can it be compared? It can be compared to two identical twin brothers. Both lived in a certain city. One was appointed king, and the other became a bandit. At the king's command they hanged the bandit. But everyone who saw him hanging there said, The king has been hung! Therefore the king issued a command and he was taken down. (b.Sanhedrin 46b) .

Ki Tavo — Deuteronomy 26:1-29:8 —This Torah portion begins with laws regarding first fruits and tithes. It goes on to discuss covenant renewal, after which Moses recites the blessings guaranteed to Israel for covenant obedience and warns of the curses for apostasy.

The URJ has much more information about each week's Torah portion at <http://www.reformjudaism.org/learning>.

SELICHOT

Selichot (literally “forgiveness prayers”) comes before Rosh Hashanah and marks the beginning of the High Holy Days. This is where we physically and spiritually prepare ourselves and our synagogue for the coming Days of Awe.

Please join us on Saturday, September 24th for this very meaningful event! The evening starts off at 6 p.m. by enjoying a delicious dairy dinner in our social hall (recommended contribution $5 per person). This will be followed by a stimulating study session with Rabbi Glickman at 7 p.m.

At 8 p.m. we will all assemble in our sanctuary to communally dress the Torah scrolls in the white coverings for the High Holy Days, change over our prayer books to the High Holy Day prayer book “the Machzor,” and participate in a brief but stirring service.

Come join us. Please call Lori in the office to let us know you are coming so we know how many people to anticipate for dinner.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

25 Years of Fighting Hunger

Over the years, you may have observed or even participated in many of the social action programs at Temple Beth Hillel. Did you know that we have had a food drive to benefit Foodshare for the last 25 years? After all this time we felt this program needed a name. This tradition will now be known as Heading Off Hunger since it coincides with the head of the New Year. The Social Action Committee is looking to strengthen and expand our long held tradition both as a local synagogue making a difference in our community, as well as the larger Jewish community involved in Tikun Olam for centuries. Stay tuned for new opportunities to get involved. During this holiday season, the Social Action Committee is working to bring meaningful activities to learn more about hunger and play a role in helping to solve this solvable problem.

TBH BOOK CLUB

The next book club meeting is Tuesday, September 3, 7:00 pm at Marion's. The book is "The Ice Cream Queen of Orchard Street" a novel by, Susan Jane Gilman...

A good read.... In 1913, Malka Treyovskyy and her family flee Russia for N.Y. She becomes crippled and abandoned in the streets of N.Y. soon after arriving. She is taken in by a tough-loving Italian ices peddler....

We hope you can join us!

Barb Klein

BOARD OF TRUSTEE TZEDAKAH

The monthly Board meetings end with a sharing of "Good & Welfare" and a tzedakah collection for a cause close to our community. The cause changes month to month, and is selected from suggestions by the board members. The August collection was sent to the Kerstetter family of the Rockville section of Vernon. Their family home was destroyed on August 8th. Seven family members were home when the house exploded and then collapsed. Thankfully, all survived although not without injury. The family has lost all its possessions. It was remarked during our discussion that the four children, ranging in ages 7 to 15, will be starting school this year with nothing. Many community groups are reaching out to help the family begin again. A GoFundMe page has been set up for Nicole Kerstetter and family members. The website is (GoFundMe/KerstetterFamilyExplosion) for those of you that would like to help.

HEALING LIST

Starting this month, the Refua Shleima list of those in need of a prayer of healing will be made better. I will try to give every person a call each week to see how they are doing. For this to happen, every name needs a sponsor and a phone number. The sponsor needs to be a Temple Beth Hillel member and the phone number can be to the sponsor or the person in need of healing. Please contact Lori by September at Admin@tbhsw.org or 860-282-8466 with this information to have a name appear on the healing list.

Zai gazunt,
Rabbi G.
