FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

A thought captured my imagination, and I've begun writing it up. It is called Nexting, and I would love to hear your thoughts about it. Life comes to us in cycles.

Spring to branch out to the vibrancy of new life and the potential it promises.

Summer to fulfill that potential and rejoice.

Autumn to gather in and appreciate.

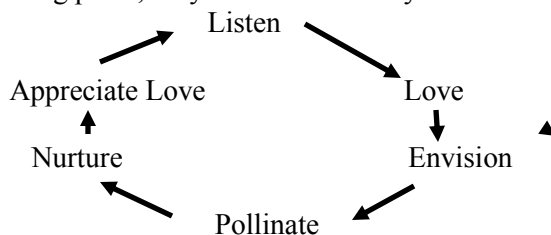

Winter to draw close, reflect and envision.

We might have a favorite season, but the greatest meaning and deepest happiness comes in living the full cycle.

Sometimes, we can get stuck in a single part of a cycle. We might like it the best, we might be good at it or we might have fallen into it. Even if you most enjoy springtime, if you stay there, you are caught up in potentials and promises, and you don't have the rewards of fruition. You also bounce from ephemeral to flighty without the grounded nature of insight and direction.

Nexting is a new name for an ancient wisdom. It views all our endeavors, large and small, as being cyclical. If you can determine where on the cycle you are, you can see the next step.

Nexting views all cycles as having six stages, and there is no priority to them, no starting place, only a direction. They are:

If you can move around the cycle, you will interact with the world in a productive and meaningful way.

TORAH PORTIONS

Nasso — Numbers 4:21-7:89 — This Torah portion finishes up the census of the Levites that was under way at the end of the last Torah portion, before going on to discuss the purification of the camp, the ritual for a woman suspected of adultery, the laws of the Nazirite vow, the priestly benediction and the gifts the heads of the twelve tribes brought for the dedication of the altar. sins.

Beha'alotcha —Numbers 8:1-12:15 — This portion is jam-packed, telling the story of the consecration of the Levites, the first Passover in the wilderness, the silver trumpets, the cloud of glory, the departure from Sinai, the grumbling in the wilderness, the first Sanhedrin and the punishment of Miriam.

Shelach — Numbers 13:1-15:41 — The Torah reading tells the tragic story of how the spies returned with a bad report about the Land of Promise and influenced the congregation of Israel to rebel against the LORD. Thus God consigned the generation of Moses to wander in the wilderness for forty years.

Korach — Numbers 16:1-18:32 —This week's Torah reading tells the story of how Korah led an unsuccessful rebellion against Moses and Aaron. After thwarting the insurrection, God confirms Aaron in the priesthood and provides additional legislation regarding priestly and Levitical privileges and responsibilities.

URJ has much more information about each week's Torah portion at <http://www.reformjudaism.org/learning>.

From the one-room tenement apartment she shared with her parents and two sisters, to the library group for girls she joins at a neighborhood settlement house, to her first, disastrous love affair, to finding the love of her life, eighty-five-year-old Addie recounts her adventures with humor and compassion for the naïve girl she once was.

Hello my name is Aaron Kurtzman.

This October 14th I will be having my Bar Mitzvah.

As a part of my Bar Mitzvah I am doing Community Service / Public Service Projects.

This is my second project, and I hope that you will be able to come.

We are having it on Sunday June 18th, 2017 at Temple Beth Hillel in South Windsor, CT.

Yes, I know that is Father's Day. I asked his permission and he said yes!

My goal for this short presentation is to teach everyone about Service Dogs,

Mike is a wonderful Yellow Lab that has been trained to take care of his human.

Kent is a Medically Discharged Service Disabled Veteran that was in the Army as a Ranger, was in the 82nd Airborne Division and then he earned his Green Beret and was in first the 1st
Special Forces Group (Airborne) and then the 10th Special Forces Group (Airborne).

Please join us at Temple Beth Hillel located at:

20 Baker Lane

South Windsor, CT 06074
