FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

"I wish one of my friends had invited me to come with them to their synagogue."
 This month, three people from different towns all said a variation of this to me.
 Each had a Jewish parent or grandparent, but was not raised Jewish.
 Let's be a more inviting congregation. Literally, let's invite more people.
 We like each other and ought to be generous in sharing our treasure.
 They will be happy to be invited.

B'shalom,
 Rabbi G.

We're Heading to Boston!

Join our delegation to the URJ Biennial 2017 to represent our congregation.

TORAH PORTIONS

Va'etchanan —Deuteronomy 3:23-7:11— The portion completes the historical prologue of the Deuteronomy covenant document and begins a rehearsal of the stipulations. Part of that rehearsal is a repetition of the Ten Commandments and the famous first passage of the Shema: Deuteronomy 6:4–9.

Ekev —Deuteronomy 7:12-11:25— This portion of Deuteronomy speaks of the rewards that will come to Israel on the heels of keeping God's covenant and commandments.

Re'eh— Deuteronomy 11:26-16:17— You shall not hesitate to give, nor murmur when you do give; because you shall know who is the good repayer of the hire. You shall not turn away from him that is in want, but you shall share all things with your brother, and shall not say that they are your own; for if you are partakers in that which is immortal, how much more in things which are mortal? (Didache 4:7-8)

Shoftim — Deuteronomy 16:18-21:9— The Torah of King Messiah is written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of human hearts (2 Corinthians 3:3).

URJ has much more information about each week's Torah portion at <http://www.reformjudaism.org/learning>.

JULY BOARD TZEDAKAH

A few congregants had mentioned that the tallitot were in need of a cleaning. One hundred and twenty seven dollars was collected to clean the 11 prayer shawls. These tallit were donated by various congregants and have been in use for many years. By using a coupon found online at Battisons.com we will be able to clean them all just in time for the High Holidays. The Board of Trustees agrees this should become a regular practice and will look for ways to find the funding necessary to make it happen.

SELICHOT

Selichot – Preparing for the Days of Awe: Mark your calendars and save the date! Saturday evening September 16th.

The evening will begin with a dairy supper at 6:00 p.m. An interesting study session will begin at 6:45 followed by Havdalah and our traditional Selichot service as we, in silence, prepare our sanctuary for the High Holidays, changing the regular prayer books to the Machzorim and dressing the Bima and Torahs in white.

Please join us for this very meaningful event!!

Habitat for Humanity®

On August 4, at 7:00 pm Rose Vigdal from Habitat for Humanity will speak at Temple Beth Hillel during services. With her prior seven years of experience at Hartford Habitat she understands the Habitat for Humanity mission and shares in the vision of "A world where everyone has a decent place to live." Working on builds in the Greater Hartford area, Rose has experienced the strengthening of communities by empowering families to change not only their lives, but also the lives of future generations through homeownership and home preservation opportunities.

In 2015 she expanded her knowledge and went on a Habitat Global Village trip. A team of 13 went to build with Habitat Guatemala's Chimaltenango affiliate (Habitat's oldest and largest International affiliate) for their Casa Mil75 project. This project incorporated over 1,100 people involved nationally, including 700 national volunteers on 181 local committees. The goal was to build the 75,000th home which they did. When asked about Habitat's mission, Rose responded, "Everyone should have a place to call home, Habitat provides that opportunity to those who are willing to work and make it happen."

During the months of November through April, Hartford Habitat would love to host your individual teams, families, faith and civic groups. They will be building in East Hartford, New Britain and Hartford.

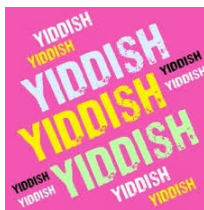

It's a full day of building and learning with your team on a Habitat site. Volunteers are the heart and soul of Habitat's mission. You will join the ranks of over 4,000 volunteers who contribute over 30,000 hours each year to support Hartford Area Habitat for Humanity.

SAVE THE DATE

The Religious School Committee is planning a fundraiser Tag Sale for October 15th from 12-3 pm At Temple. They will be selling “tables”. You purchase a table and bring your ‘Treasures’ to sell. More information on how to purchase a table to participate in the Sale will be available soon. Start weeding out your stuff!!

YIDDISH FOR FUN

Temple Beth Hillel will be holding a "Yiddish for fun" class. This is an intro to Yiddish class and is opened to ALL (members and non). The first two classes will meet Monday, August 21 and Monday September 18, from 1-2:30 pm at Temple Beth Hillel. For more information on the class please contact Marsha at (marshataback@gmail.com).

GUEST SPEAKER

Avnet Kleiner, will speak at Temple Beth Hillel and present the congregation with a plaque from The JNF, for trees planted in Israel on Friday, August 18, at 7:00 pm. As ALEH Negev’s Director of Development in the USA, Avnet Kleiner works closely with Jewish National Fund to promote his organization, a pioneering rehabilitation village in Israel’s Negev that provides medical and therapeutic care to residents with severe cognitive and physical disabilities, as well as outpatient rehabilitative services to children and young adults. His extensive experience in the nonprofit sector includes founding of ALFA, which advances the rights of Israeli Holocaust survivors, and WhatIsrael, which recruits, trains, and sends students to university campuses worldwide to promote constructive conversations about Israel.

JOIN THE HIGH HOLIDAY ENSEMBLE

A great way for all of us to prepare for these 'Days of Awe', even if you'll be observing the High Holy Days with family elsewhere in the Sanctuary or out of town. Singing with the High Holy Day Choir can be for you and the others sitting around you, one of the most educational and inspirational ways to participate in High Holy Day services.

There is great joy in singing and making music with a diversity of people for a common purpose
Tov l'hodot L'adonai Ul'zameir l'shimcha Elyon
( it's good to give thanks to Adonai to sing hymns to Your Name - Psalm 92:2)

We will have the opportunity to explore music and text of our people, which are a continuing reminder of Adonai through all times and places. I look forward to you lifting our prayers and the prayers of our congregation.

Preparing for Yamim Noraim 'These Days of Awe' 5778.
At 7:00 pm on the Wednesday Evenings listed below, we will come together to share our love of Jewish music and singing.

Introduction: Wednesday August 30th @ 7:00 PM

Wednesday September 6 @7:00 PM

Wednesday September 13 @7:00 PM

Erev Rosh Hashanah: Wednesday, September 20

1st Day of Rosh Hashanah: Thursday, September 21

Kol Nidre: Friday September 29th

Yom Kippur: Saturday September 30

I hope you'll join us!

Enjoy a cup of tea/coffee and a piece of pastry and the chance to meet and catch up with new and old friends.

All are welcome to join the High Holy Day Ensemble.
There are NO pre-requisite levels of vocal training or sight reading skills.
Please remember to bring your binder.
I will have copies of the cue sheets and music.

Book Talk with Elizabeth Poliner

Tuesday, August 8, 2017

6:00 pm

Community Services Building
333 Bloomfield Ave., West Hartford

A multigenerational family saga about the long-lasting reverberations of one tragic summer. In 1948, a small stretch of the Woodmont, Connecticut shoreline, affectionately named "Bagel Beach," has long been a summer destination for Jewish families. Here sisters Ada, Vivie, and Bec assemble at their beloved family cottage, with children in tow and weekend-only husbands who arrive each Friday in time for the Sabbath meal. During the weekdays, freedom reigns. But when a terrible accident occurs on the sisters' watch, a summer of hope and self-discovery transforms into a lifetime of atonement and loss for members of this close-knit clan.

$5.00 per person
