FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

There are some fine Jewish organizations you might not know about. One is the JCPA. The Jewish Council for Public Affairs united the community relations efforts of 125 Jewish communities representing all branches of American Judaism. They are celebrating their 75th anniversary this year. Their president, David Bernstein, put out this about Jewish loyalty.

Shalom,

Rabbi G.

[From JCPA]

I am an American Jew.

I may be a Democrat. I may be a Republican. I may be an independent. I am a proud American, and I am neither ignorant nor disloyal.

I love what America stands for, its ideals and its aspirations, its openness and its promise. I am committed to ensuring that this country lives up to these ideals.

I am the descendant of immigrants and see America as a nation of immigrants. I care about Israel and am dedicated to protecting the Jewish state from those who would do it harm from the outside or inside. I am not an Israeli citizen.

I am concerned about growing Antisemitism but I do not want anyone, from either party, to politicize it and use it as a wedge issue. I am not a political prop.

I am an American Jew.

Sincerely,
An American Jew

Torah Portions

Shoftim—Deuteronomy 16:18-21:9 The commandment for the king to write a copy of the Torah demonstrates the work of Messiah. He Himself is the Word made flesh. He is the copy of the Torah in human form. Furthermore, He writes a copy of the Torah as He writes the Torah upon our hearts. The Torah of King Messiah is written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of human hearts

Ki-tetzei — Deuteronomy 21:10-25:19 Rabbi Meir said, There is a parable about this matter. To what can it be compared? It can be compared to two identical twin brothers. Both lived in a certain city. One was appointed king, and the other became a bandit. At the king's command they hanged the bandit. But everyone who saw him hanging there said, The king has been hung! Therefore the king issued a command and he was taken down.

Ki Tavo — Deuteronomy 26:1-29:8 This Torah portion begins with laws regarding first fruits and tithes. It goes on to discuss covenant renewal, after which Moses recites the blessings guaranteed to Israel for covenant obedience and warns of the curses for apostasy.

Natzivam—Deuteronomy 29:9-30:20 In this portion, Moses invites the entire assembly of Israel to take on the covenant. He warns them that if they sin, they will go into exile, but he also predicts that, in the future, they will repent and God will return them to the land of Israel. In some years, Nitzavim is read together with the subsequent Torah portion, Vayelech, on the same Sabbath.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The end of summer, to me, has always been more about beginnings. Being an educator it has always been the start of the year. It also marks the beginning of the Jewish year. I look forward to seeing everyone as we celebrate the High Holy Days. We have many events over the next month and they will continue as the year progresses.

Please think about what you want this new year to mean to you and how you can become more a part of your Temple Beth Hillel family.

Thank you,
Michael Skott

Preparing for Yamim Noraim ‘These Days of Awe’ 5780.

A great way for all of us to prepare for these ‘Days of Awe’, even if you'll be observing the High Holy Days with family elsewhere in the Sanctuary or out of town. Singing for you can be one of the most inspirational ways to participate in High Holy Day services.

There is great joy in singing and making music with a diversity of people for a common purpose –Tov l'hodot Ladonai Ul'zameir l'shimcha Elyon
(it's good to give thanks to Adonai to sing hymns to Your Name – Psalm 92:2)

We'll will have the opportunity to explore music and text of our people, which are a continuing reminder of Adonai through all times and places.
