Our People Were Immigrants Too.

In 1881, Jews of Russia and Eastern Europe had been in bad straights for a long time. A new hope was founded, the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society. From a store front in the Lower East Side of Manhattan, thousands of Jewish immigrants were helped.

Because of HIAS, those facing rising anti-Semitism had a new hope. They thought they were living out the Passover story. Through the great upheavals of the First and Second World Wars, HIAS grew in importance. Based on the teachings of our Torah, "Love the stranger," "Take the homeless poor into your home," "Remember that you were slaves," HIAS took on an expanded role.

On Friday night, March 6th, Bob Fishman will talk with us about the role HIAS is playing today. We will have several invited guests to hear him.

This is something to invite your friends to.
Shalom,
Rabbi G.

T O R A H P O R T I O N S

Tetzaveh—Exodus 27:20-30:10 This Torah portion continues to narrate the instructions for the construction of the Tabernacle, focusing particularly on the priesthood that was to serve in that sanctuary. The Israelites are commanded to make special garments for Aaron and his sons to wear while ministering as priests. After describing the priestly garments, the portion concludes with instructions for the ritual inauguration of Aaron and his sons into the priesthood.

Ki Tisa—Exodus 30:11-34:35 The portion begins with instructions for taking a census, finishes up the instructions for making the Tabernacle, reiterates the commandment of Shabbat and then proceeds to tell the story of the golden calf. The majority of Ki Tisa is concerned with the sin of the golden calf, the breach in the covenant between God and Israel, and how Moses undertakes to restore that covenant relationship.

Vayakhei-Pekudei—Exodus 35:1-40:38 This portion from the Torah describes how the assembly of Israel worked together to build the Tabernacle. In most years, synagogues read Vayakhel together with the following portion, Pekudei. The portion goes on to describe the completion of the Tabernacle and its assembly and concludes by depicting the glory of the LORD entering it.

Vayikra—Leviticus 1:1-5:26 The twenty-fourth reading from the Torah is eponymous with the Hebrew name of the book it introduces: Vayikra. This portion introduces the sacrificial service and describes five different types of sacrifices.

RELIGIOUS PRACTICES COMMITTEE

Our congregation was treated to a wonderful celebration of Tu B'Shevat, a joint effort of RPC, clergy and the 6th graders. Marla Adelsberger went above and beyond – Todah Ra-bah! We would love to see more joint programming, there is so much to learn from one another!

We have a request to provide additional opportunities for congregants to have a minyan to say Kaddish, in addition to Shabbat services.

Current minyan opportunities during the school year:

- Hebrew School on Tuesdays at approximately 6:00 PM
- Sunday mornings at approximately 9:00 AM

We are looking to identify congregants who may be able to join us for a minyan during the week, either first thing in the morning or after work. If you are interested in being on a list of potentially available congregants to meet this need please contact the TBH office with your name, phone number and a general time that you are available. No set commitment - just means that you will be on a phone tree.

The synagogue Passover seder planning is in the works. We have a top notch team working on it! Thank you to all who have stepped forward. It will be a wonderful community celebration - please consider helping, as well as attending! Early reservations are very much appreciated.

Religious practices committee is a vibrant group of caring individuals working together to support the religious and spiritual experience of our community. We are ALWAYS looking for more to join us. Please consider. Meetings are at TBH on the first Tuesday of the month at 7pm. Chocolate will be provided upon request!

Thank You

Keep an eye out for our new AED defibrillator which will arrive in our synagogue shortly. Thank you to the Martin Turshen Memorial Fund for sponsoring the AED for the Temple.

SHEMA TOUR 2020 UPDATE:

SUPPORT OUR FIRST COLLECTION EFFORT OF THE YEAR

& Attend Our Next Planning Meeting: Sunday, March 15 at 12 noon at TBH

TBH members are holding the first collection drive for our 2020 Shema Tour effort: Walk in the Light Church of God on Garden Street in Hartford's North End. This small church serves an economically challenged community and can use assistance in many ways. Our focus over the coming months is to support the church and its members by organizing collections of many types of items that include food, clothing, furniture, funds and other essential items.

Our first collection focus is for: 1) Donations of Baby Formula for people in the church's community who cannot afford it; AND 2) for Funds so TBH can purchase baby formula and buy renovation materials to help repair the aging building.

How YOU can help:

► Donations of Formula can be brought to Temple Beth Hillel and placed in the baskets in the lobby or in the office. (premixed liquid formula is preferred over the powdered version, but both are welcome).

If you are unable to carry formula to the temple, you can send a check to Temple Beth Hillel and we will purchase the formula and bring it to the church.

► Checks of Any Amount can be made out to either:
Temple Beth Hillel or Walk in the Light Church of God.
Cash is welcome too.

All Checks/Cash can be given to Lori in the TBH office OR dropped in the LOCKED mailboxes outside the Temple office or at the end of our driveway OR mailed to TBH. Please add a Post-It or a quick note indicating that it's for the Shema Tour effort.

Our next congregation-wide Shema Tour meeting will be on:
Sunday, March 15th at 12 noon. All are encouraged to attend.

Together, we can make a real impact on the lives of this community.

WITNESS FOR MY FATHER

BARBARA BERGREN

How a Jewish survivor and a black lieutenant prevailed against genocide and racism.

"Martin Weigen was eleven when the Nazis invaded his hometown of Starachowice, Poland. He survived the death march from Auschwitz, imprisonment at Buchenwald, and the deaths of his family before his liberation at Dachau and the decision that changed the course of his life.

He never spoke of it.

Fifty years later, a surprise telephone call opens the door to Martin's past."

Author Bio

Barbara Bergren is an author, lecturer, and Holocaust educator. She earned her MBA from the University of Hartford and worked in the finance industry for twenty-five years before writing Witness for My Father. Barbara visits schools, religious organizations, and community groups speaking about her father's experience during and after World War II. This is the story of her father, Martin Weigen, and how his friendship and reunion with Lieutenant John Withers impacted her life. She lives with her husband in both Florida and Connecticut.
