

HILLEL HAPPENINGS

FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

Memory

"Forgetfulness leads to exile,

While remembrance is the secret of redemption." -- Baal Shem Tov

It is so easy to forget.

We forget what it was like when we didn't view strangers, and especially children, as dangerous because of the germs they could carry.

We forget that simple pleasures, like blowing out birthday candles, used to be so innocent.

We forget how powerful it is to be together in prayer at our Temple.

This holiday is about remembering. A special part is called Zichronot -- Remembrance. Rabbi Seymour Siegel wrote:

"God remembers, and we, also, must remember. We are part of a great tradition. A human being cannot live as if he had amnesia. He is part of a great history. The greatest sin a Jew can commit is to forget who he is. He is the son of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, of the people who gave religion to the world and who taught decency and morality to the world."

Come and remember with us.

L'shana tova,

Rabbi Jeff and Mindy Glickman

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

TBH Family,

For most of us, our everyday lives operate on the secular calendar. However, as the summer wraps up, we return home from visiting family, and the kids prepare to go back to school, it always seems like it is truly the end of a year. This year, Rosh Hashana coincides nearly perfectly with these events and it just feels right. For my family, these holidays come at a busy time of the year, but also during a time where I could really use a “reset.”

As TBH continues to navigate the volatile COVID guidelines, this year's preparations for the High Holidays have been complex. Thank you to those of you who responded to our survey – your input was helpful to us in determining our plans. You should have received a schedule of services and events in the mail as well as your email. As you know, there will be indoor, outdoor, and Zoom options available for most events, and some of them will include food as well (outdoors only)!

We kicked off the holidays with Selichot last weekend and it was a wonderful event. Reform congregations from across the Greater Hartford area joined us at TBH for a sandwich, study, havdallah, and music. If you didn't make it this year, you should leave yourself a note to remember it next year! Also last weekend was our first Open House, complete with games, free books, and an ice cream truck. It was great to re-connect with people in our community, and we hope to make this an annual event.

Besides our holiday services, we will also be welcoming our Religious School back into the building in September, after a full year of remote classes. And later in the month we are excited to be having a “Sukkah Hop” once again – please see the flyer later in this newsletter for more information on signing up to be a host.

I look forward to seeing you all at the upcoming services and events. And I hope you find whatever it is that you need in your life during these holy days.

L'shanah tovah,

Adam Kaprove

CORONAVIRUS TASKFORCE UPDATE

Thanks to our dedicated Coronavirus Task Force team and the safety measures we have in place, TBH remains open for services and events, including the High Holy Days and Religious School.

As we approach the new year, we are cautiously optimistic that covid numbers will fall and we can once again un-mask. For now, masks are required indoors for all ages to be consistent with federal, state, and local guidance. It's also extremely important that we give everyone a sense of comfort by erring on the side of caution. With this in mind, masks also will be required for those who attend outdoor services in the tent during this time.

Please remember to check with your doctor about the vaccine. TBH will not ask about your vaccine status out of respect for your privacy and to be consistent with the law.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to call the office, speak with members of the board, or contact the coronavirus task force

Paul Margolis Photograph Exhibit: Israel Impressions Exhibit: August 28 – September 30, 2021

Zoom Presentation by Paul Margolis: Date To Be Determined

View the photographs when you're at the Temple for services or whenever the building is open.

(Lori is usually in the office until 2:00 on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays.)

Israel Impressions is an exhibit that includes many outdoor scenes taken in Israel that reflect the diversity of the people and culture. Paul used a Leica camera, then processed and printed the black and white film for the photographs in this series.

Margolis is known for his documentary series as well as his fine art photographs. He explores the world and significant events in his documentaries. His work is in museums, historical archives, and private collections. Read his biography and view his photograph series on <http://www.paulmargolis.com/>.

This program is sponsored by the Congregation Beth Ahm Legacy Fund.

The first annual TBH Open house was a huge success - thank you goes out to all who participated, set up and foremost to Marla Adelsberger who had the vision, created it and made it happen! It was wonderful to see the students enjoying, teen helpers involved and especially Lilly who kept it all organized with her clip board of info! It was so much fun to hear the music, reconnect with TBH members of all generations, enjoy an ice cream from the ice cream truck and see our wonderful community together! Joyous sounds of laughter and conversation.

We look forward to seeing everyone throughout the holidays and wish all a happy, healthy new year.

Please reach out to Deb Halpern debhal229@gmail.com or David Basile david_M_Basile@yahoo.com any ideas, questions, concerns and of course with any potential new members to reach out to!

SOCIAL ACTION

TBH Members Cook Meals for The Cornerstone Want to Help?

Eight years ago, inspired by a Shema Tour visit to The Cornerstone Foundation, Inc. in Vernon, Barbara and Mike Brezel started preparing monthly dinners for the families and individuals served by the organization. The Cornerstone operates a soup kitchen, two shelters, a food pantry, clothing bank, youth/ outreach center, and other vital services.

Thanks to the consistent help of Temple members Carol Bettigole and Sally Goodman, and periodic support from members Sheila Alpert, Rebecca Chaimovitch, Becky McCann, Judy Scott, Lisa Wolf, the Bradbards and the Brouillards, plus community friends who include Edie Chernick, the Dicksteins and the Zinns, these home-cooked meals are welcome additions to The Cornerstone's ongoing meal program. Over the years, several of our Bar and Bat Mitzvah students have even been recruited to add their culinary flair to this project.

This kind of proactive, grassroots outreach is more important than ever as the number of hungry people in our local communities and our nation increases.
If you are interested in helping this effort, please contact Barbara Brezel at bfbjp18@gmail.com or 860-416-0875.

Tzedakah during the High Holy Days:

Our Temple a long tradition of collecting food to feed hungry people in our communities. During our High Holy Days, we encourage members and guests bring non-perishable boxed/canned foods for Foodshare/ Connecticut Food Bank and place in our lobby and tent collection boxes. Also welcome are checks of any amount written to FOODSHARE – monetary donations allow them to purchase what is needed at the time.

September Shema Partner Support for Walk in the Light Church of God

TBH's major collection focus for September and October is for nonperishable food items, personal hygiene products, and cleaning supplies such as bleach and paper towels.
In November, we will start collecting winter clothing for adults and children.

As always, you also can make Monetary Donations toward our Temple's Social Action efforts and purchase of food and other items: Please contact Laura Soll-Broxterman with any questions or suggestions at Lsoll@tbhsw.org or 860-688-4499. To Donate via Credit Card, call Lori in the office at 860-282-8466 Ext. 0.

Temple Beth Hillel's Adult Education Committee Invites You to a Zoom Presentation on Sunday October 15th at 1:00pm
By Daphne Geismar & Sharon Strauss about:

"Invisible Years": A Family's Collected Account of Separation and Survival
During the Holocaust in the Netherlands with a forward and historical contributions by Holocaust scholar, Robert Jan van Pelt.

ZOOM LINK WILL BE PROVIDED AT LATER DATE

A Presentation by Daphne Geismar and Sharon Strauss

In this presentation, you will hear the stories of eight family members, from two generations, as they responded to events surrounding their lives as Jews in the Netherlands during the German occupation. It is as if the family members are speaking to one another when in reality they could not. You will be transported into the world of the De Zoete family as they encounter the worst and the best of humankind.

"Today is the last day that the Germans are tolerating Jews in the Netherlands," wrote Fifi de Zoete in her diary. Deciding they would not flee, Fifi and her husband, Chaim hound hiding homes for each of their three daughters, but struggled to find a safe place for themselves. Finally a pastor offered them a place to hide behind the organ pipes in his church.

In 2006, eleven of the De Zoetes' descendants visited the Rotterdam church where Fifi and Chaim hid for two years. Back home, in the United States and Israel, Daphne Geismar and Sharon Strauss were amazed to discover that their mothers (two of the three De Zoete sisters) both had "Holocaust drawers" in which they kept letters, journals, documents, and photographs. These family artifacts became the basis of Invisible Years, a book that Daphne wrote and designed.

Why We Left a Legacy

There are many places where Jews congregate -- restaurants and festivals to name a few. However, there is only one place where Jews are made -- the synagogue. I value what we have inherited -- a vibrant faith community to combat loneliness and insights to give meaning to life. I feel responsible to pass the baton on to future generations.

That is why we have left a Legacy.

TORAH PORTIONS

NITZAVIM — Deuteronomy 29:9-30:20 In this portion, Moses invites the entire assembly of Israel to take on the covenant. He warns them that if they sin, they will go into exile, but he also predicts that, in the future, they will repent and God will return them to the land of Israel. In some years, Nitzavim is read together with the subsequent Torah portion, Vayelech, on the same Sabbath.

VAYELECH — Deuteronomy 31:1-31:30 In this short portion, Moses commands an assembly for a public Torah reading and covenant renewal once every seven years. He then finishes writing the scroll of the Torah and has it deposited in the Holy of Holies next to the ark of the covenant.

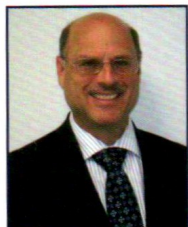

HA'AZINU —Deuteronomy 32:1-32:52 This Torah portion is only a single chapter long, and the majority of it consists of the Song of Moses. The Song of Moses is a prophetic oracle warning Israel about apostasy to come and the resulting wrath of God. The song looks far into the future, even envisioning the Messianic advent amid rich and frightening apocalyptic imagery. After the conclusion of the song, Moses is told to ascend Mount Nebo and overlook the Promised Land before dying.

CHOL HAMO'ED SUKKOT —Exodus 33:12-34:26 On the first day of Sukkot, the following Torah portions are read: Leviticus 22:26-23:44; Numbers 29:12-29:16. On the intermediate days of Sukkot (Chol HaMo'ed), portions from Numbers 29:17-31 are read. When an intermediate day of Sukkot falls on Shabbat, read the portions below. The Shabbat during Chol HaMo'ed on Sukkot is known as Sukkot Shabbat Chol Hamoed and in addition to the designated Torah reading, maftir, and haftarah readings for that day, Ecclesiastes (Kohelet) is read aloud in synagogue in its entirety with special cantillation prior to the Torah reading during services.
