It was wonderful seeing so many of you at Temple for the annual meeting, and for services! People are really coming back.

At the annual meeting, I announced how honored I was to be offered emeritus status starting a year from now.

It means moving from senior staff to support staff. Remember, I raised up five children and Mindy raised up two -- now they are all grown, many married, and living all over this country!

This year will be a time for stepping up in the community. Now is a great time to learn how to lead services, to read Torah or to deliver a d'var Torah. Cantor Harris and I will be conducting training throughout the year.

Shalom,

Rabbi G.

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

TBH Family,

It was great to see so many of you at Shavuot and Yizkor while celebrating our Confirmation Class last month, followed by a nice turnout at the Annual Congregational Meeting! All the items up for vote at the meeting (the Board slate, budget, cemetery plots, and Bylaws revisions) passed. Congrats to everyone who has stepped up to help our congregation!

Also at the Annual Meeting, Rabbi announced some of his upcoming plans. He and Mindy are expecting to celebrate many simchas in the coming years which will require travel. Rabbi's contract allows for a meaningful amount of unpaid time off if discussed in advance, which he is planning to utilize for the coming year. He will be partnering with Cantor and the Board to arrange coverage during his time away.

Rabbi also announced his decision not to automatically renew his contract when it expires at the end of next year (June 2023), for similar reasons. The transition to new or different clergy configurations can be stressful on a congregation, but should also be exciting. It is a rare opportunity for reflection, where, just like Rabbi has done, we think about what simchas are next for our congregation. The Board will be spending part of the coming year reaching out to hear everyone's priorities and perspectives for TBH's future, and invite you to be part of this process. More information will be coming out soon!

L'shalom,

Adam Kaprove

CORONAVIRUS TASK FORCE UPDATE

Greetings from the Coronavirus Task Force,

We continue to see fluctuations in the number of cases in our region, but fortunately those cases have been generally less severe. There are relatively low numbers of hospitalizations, patients in ICU, and deaths as a result of COVID-19. This is good news for our continued ability to worship in person and attend celebrations at Temple.

As always, if you feel more comfortable wearing a mask please do so. N95 and KN95 are the recommended types. We also want to remind everyone of our quarantine guidelines:

- Please stay home if you have any symptoms associated with covid.
- If a member of your household tests positive, the entire family must quarantine from Temple for 5 days after everyone's symptoms have stopped.

Oneg is still happening after Shabbat services, and we welcome you to join us! Food is pre-wrapped or served by a designated person wearing gloves.

Please reach out if you have any questions or concerns.

SOCIAL ACTION UPDATE

South Windsor's Co-Sponsorship of an Afghan Family

Gently Used Clothing Most Needed Now

Good news! The young Afghan family that the South Windsor community is helping is learning more about American life every day. It is wonderful that they attended our June "Shabbat Under the Stars" and many of you had the opportunity to meet them.

We thank our TBH members who already have provided items, services such as driving, childcare and funds to help them begin their new lives in America. Thanks to twice weekly language lessons, the parents' English skills are quickly improving, and the husband is successful at his entry-level job.

If you would like to help, most needed is gently used or new summer and fall clothing, as they arrived in the U.S. with only three suitcases carrying all their possessions after months in multiple refugee camps/military bases.

► Baby Girl clothes: seeking larger than 9 month-old clothes (she now has size 6-9 month items but has outgrown most of them).

► Womens' clothes for a young mid-20s mom: Tops and Jeans/Jeggings/Slacks – Note that sleeves should be no shorter than the elbow (since modesty is important). She just shy of 5 feet tall and tops are Medium or Large (Petite or Regular). Flowy tunics are best as she's still losing her pregnancy weight – and she loves color. Medium and Large Jeggings/pants with an elastic waist are best for now. Gently worn size 6 or 6 ½ Flat Shoes with support, Sneakers, and Sandals would be welcome too!

► Men's clothes for a young mid-20s dad: Tee Shirts/Golf Shirts, casual button-down Shirts and Jeans/Slacks/Shorts – Men's Small to Medium for all.

You can contact Laura Soll-Broxterman at 860-688-4499 or LSoll@tbhsw.org or leave your donations in bins in the Temple lobby.

We continue to seek:

TBH volunteers who can drive the family to medical appointments and English lessons in the first months after they arrive. Contact Laura Soll-Broxterman.

Individuals who speak DARI, Farsi or Urdu who can help with occasional interpretation needs until the family is more conversant in English. Contact Laura Soll-Broxterman.

Names of potential employers for both parents who would hire someone learning more English every day. Contact Rabbi Glickman.

Our South Windsor Refugee Alliance group continues to raise funds to help with the family's basic needs during the first year. To donate, please make checks payable to: St. Peter's Episcopal Church (note SWRA in the memo line), and mail to: 99 Sand Hill Road, South Windsor, CT 06074.

If you have any questions about this effort, contact Rabbi Glickman Rabbi@tbhsw.org, or Laura Soll-Broxterman, LSoll@tbhsw.org.

Summer Drive for Food, Funds for Our Shema Tour Partner

The pressures of the past two and half years keep building in the Walk in the Light Church of God's community in Hartford's North End. We know from our ongoing work with Archbishop Dexter Burke, how summer can be particularly stressful and difficult for families.

In the summer, children are home from school so a parent must stay at home instead of working and earning money. Children don't receive the supplemental food program meals they do during the school year. Some families have little food enough for their own families, so now when relatives come to visit tempers can flare. And, the heat of the city, limited cooling, and rising costs of food and fuel makes it all so much more difficult – Archbishop Burke notes these are some of the reasons why the community he serves experiences increased domestic violence incidents at this time.

Last week, TBH's Social Action purchased/delivered $300 in water & juices, food, cleaning supplies (also careful about COVID), and $10 gift cards to the church. We also carried lightweight clothing and food you brought to the church.

You can help -- Bring donations of items to any of our services or events to our collection baskets and bins in the lobby.

Needed most: Nonperishable canned and boxed foods, baby formula/diapers, personal toiletries, household cleaning products. new or gently used lightweight clothing for adults and children.

YEAR-ROUND SOCIAL ACTION SUPPORT: As always, you can make Monetary Donations toward our Temple's Social Action efforts and emergency purchases of food and other items:

Checks can be made out to Temple Beth Hillel and mail to the Temple.

To Donate via Credit Card, call Lori in the office at 860-282-8466 Ext. 0.

Thank you for your generosity and support of these and other TBH community efforts.

Why I Left a Legacy

I am only one, but the action and choice that I make to participate in this Life and Legacy program is a small piece of a much bigger picture. The opportunity for me to live for a purpose that's deeper than just myself, as I stand on the shoulders of those who came before me have done.

I love my children with all my heart, and I hope that they, and their children, have and will continue to learn from the way I live my life and the choices that I make.

I can't do it all, though G-d knows I wish that I could.

He used to say, "If I am not for myself, who will be for me? And, if I am for myself alone, then what am I?

And if not now, when?" (Pirkei Avot 1:14)

I live my life with actions and I pray that choices that I make today will have an impact on the future, not only for my children, but for the perpetuation of the Jewish community that embraces me in life with love and learning.

Scott Harris

TORAH PORTIONS

KORACH Numbers 16:1-18:32 This week's Torah reading tells the story of how Korah led an unsuccessful rebellion against Moses and Aaron. After thwarting the insurrection, God confirms Aaron in the priesthood and provides additional legislation regarding priestly and Levitical privileges and responsibilities.

CHUKAT Numbers 19:1-22:1 This reading contains the story of Moses striking the rock, the stories of the deaths of Aaron and Miriam and the wars with the Amorites. The portion concludes with the host of Israel encamping on the edge of the Promised Land.

BALAK Numbers 22:2-25:9 This week's Torah reading tells the story of how Balak hires the occult prophet Balaam to lay a curse on Israel. Balaam meets resistance from God, has a conversation with his donkey and ends up blessing Israel instead of cursing them.

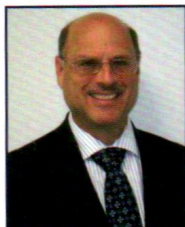

PINCHAS Numbers 25:10-30:1 In this Torah portion, the LORD makes a covenant of peace with Phinehas and his descendants, orders a second census, settles questions about inheritance, appoints Joshua to succeed Moses and lists the sacrifices for the appointed times.

MATTOT/MASSEI Numbers 30:2-36:13, This portion discusses the laws of vows and oaths. Numbers 31 tells the story of Israel's war with Midian. Numbers 32 relates the story of how the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Mannaseh came to inherit the land east of the Jordan River. Except in biblical calendar leap years, Mattot is read together with the subsequent Torah portion, Massei, on the same Sabbath.
