As the month of Nissan approaches, we feel the warmer air and wonder “Where will I make Seder this year?”, or at least some of us do. Some of us know exactly where we will be on April 22, 2024, and I must come clean and admit that I was unable to secure a reputable caterer so we can hold Seder at TBH, so it won’t be Baker Lane for me! This year, we will make Seder at The Nutmeg in East Windsor, and we don’t have to worry about cleaning up!

There will be online registration very soon, and we plan to have at least 50 participants. I will make a shameless plug here to tip the balance for anyone who is “on the fence” – my oldest son, Shai, will join TBH’s Seder, and that may well be his first encounter with the congregation.

Seder means order, and while the tradition of following a certain order (Kadesh ur’chatz, carpas, yachatz...) for “the telling of the Exodus” is well known, many houses turn chaotic in the lead up to Passover. This holiday is unique in that leavened food (chametz) is not only not allowed to be eaten, it is also not permitted to be owned! The fictitious sale of all of Israel’s leaven to a Muslim has happened most years, but somehow I think this year will be different.

If you grew up in a Jewishly observant home you may remember searching for the very last crumbs with a feather and a spoon and taking them outside perhaps, to burn with a candle. “Biyyur Chametz” is a very visual exhibition that, while picturesque, sets a nearly impossible bar to reach. Can we really find every single molecule of forgotten snacks and nibbles? Is that a significant part of Passover, or have we been overthinking something “mindful”? Instead of allowing everyone in the house, even the smallest, to take an active part in the preparations for this holiday, it often becomes a stressful memory tester of a ritual. No matter how you prepare for Seder this year, I urge you to do so with intentionality, rather than on “auto-pilot”.

We ready ourselves to celebrate our people’s ancient escape from slavery while there are yet living, breathing children and adults held captive in Gaza by Hamas. This year we are challenged as never before to not lose hope that the value of human life will prevail over the value of political ideas or real estate. I have few easy answers, none that comfort me in any event.

Let us face this challenge together, not to focus on the tremendous suffering, but to strengthen our community’s bonds with each other, though we feel distant.

May the chaos be subdued so that each of us find some seder inwardly.
 Rabbi Leah Benamy

TBH Family,

Welcome to spring! It is a time of new beginnings, plants and flowers blooming and the weather warming up. We here, at TBH, are in a transformation period as well. It is at times like these that we take a pause to look at who we are and where we plan on going.

One of the areas the Board has been looking at is our finances. While we continue to run at a deficit, the Board is working diligently to close this gap. But, we cannot do it on our own. While we look at external sources of income and ways to keep the budget balanced, we also must look inward to make sure we are all doing all we can to help support this place we love.

So, if you are one of the many people who are on abatement, we ask you to please take a look at what you can do to help us close this gap. We have an unusually high number of members on abatement, and can significantly close the gap in our budget if those members would pay even a little more. So please take a look at what you currently contribute and see if there is a way you can help out more.

While finances are important, there is another area in which we need help from you. Our Temple has many different committees in need of support as well. From Adult Education, to Membership, to Social Action, to Religious Practices, there are numerous committees seeking members to help out in creating programs that are of interest to us all. Please consider reaching out to one of these committee chairs to see when they meet and help us make this the best TBH we can be!

As always, your Board is here for any questions you may have, so please feel free to reach out to any of its members, including myself.

L'Shalom,

Jeff Levin, TBH President

FROM THE RABBI EMERITUS' STUDY

Here is a piece I wrote inspired by the Book of Job:

Why

A young child's book about Job

Why are some people bigger?

Why can some people sing easily, or ride a bike without any trouble?

Why do some people seem to have such a hard time?

Why does everyone, even good people, have sad times?

My family doesn't even know the answers. We might never know.

One thing we do know –

If we try to help others, our problems become so much smaller.

Happy Passover!

Rabbi Jeff and Mindy Glickman

Important Message about Saturday Morning Shabbat Services from Religious Practices Committee:

The reverberations from COVID have affected attendance at Shabbat services, especially on Saturday mornings. When there is not a minyan, i.e. 10 Jews over the age of 13 physically present, no group Kaddish is recited nor is Torah read from the scroll. Shabbat morning services without these elements are brief, about 20 minutes. So, moving forward, the Religious Practices Committee (RPC) has agreed to have Torah study begin at 9 a.m. and, if there is a minyan, a full Shabbat morning service at 10:15 a.m.

Special scheduled Shabbat morning services including Family Discussion Shabbats and B'Mitzvah ceremonies will continue as previously scheduled, beginning at 9 a.m.

RPC will continue to discuss designating one Shabbat morning service a month, in consideration of those who would like to come to say Kaddish with a minyan, or simply pray in the morning.

New Social Action Projects for Temple Members

Our Temple's energetic and invested group of social action advocates are moving forward on new projects and invite members of all ages to get involved:

🌍 ENVIRONMENTALISM ACTIONS TO PROTECT OUR EARTH 🌍

The Social Action Committee recently chose Environmentalism as a focus area for the group and congregation members. We observed that good people want to protect the earth for their future and that of their kids, but they just don't know how.

Our goal is to make sustainability accessible to everyone, matching their level of commitment, time, and investment. To achieve this, one of the actions we will be taking is sharing tips, on a regular basis, that you can try in your own household to become a little more aware of the three "R's" - Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle.

Here are the first three easy tips that you can employ to help our planet:

Reduce food waste. It's simple. Plan ahead on groceries and use what you have on hand.

According to the EPA, 1/3 of all food in the U.S. goes uneaten.

You will save money, reduce greenhouse gases and conserve natural resources.

Save water by turning off the faucet while brushing your teeth.

According to the EPA, a typical faucet runs at two gallons per minute.

This simple action means one person can save over 200 gallons of water per month.

Avoid single use plastic containers whenever possible.

Substitute reusable bottles and shopping bags, avoid individually packaged snacks.

Currently about 40% of plastic waste comes from single use plastic.

FIELD TRIP FOR NEW CROCK POT PROJECT TO SUPPORT LOCAL ORGANIZATION & FOOD PANTRY AND FAMILIES IT SERVES

TBH will participate in an impactful Crock Pot project with the Manchester Area Conference of Churches (MACC) and its food pantry. This will involve our members securing and assembling ingredients for meals for 200 families in need who have crock pots.

To learn more, TBH members will visit and tour MACC at 466 Main Street in Manchester on Tuesday, April 2nd at 4 p.m. We expect the visit to last about an hour.

(Park behind the community kitchen or behind the emergency food pantry right next-door)

If you want to join the tour to MACC or have questions, contact Marla Adelsberger by Monday morning, April 1: (860) 668-5501 or marlaladelsberger@gmail.com

HELP FILL TBH'S LITTLE FOOD PANTRY

Place nonperishable food and small toiletries directly into our pantry outside on the corner OR in the boxes in our lobby.

Volunteers check the pantry once a week and fill it with food from our lobby.

We still need a member to sign up for the month of December.

If you want December, contact Sam in the Temple office at 860-282-8466.

We Welcome You to Our Next Social Action Meeting on Wed., April 17th at 7 p.m.

AN IMPORTANT ISSUE IMPACTS OUR SYNOGOGUE: The Financial Health of Temple Beth Hillel

We depend upon the income raised from membership dues, High Holy Days pledges, and Life & Legacy commitments to pay for essential costs which includes insurance, utilities, maintenance, security, and staff salaries. In the next two weeks, we will begin reaching out to members who are not meeting their dues obligations, including abatement agreements.

We are a family. It is only fair that everyone participates and contributes to help our congregation thrive. To quote from Mishnah Avot: אם אין קמח אין תורה; “If there is no flour, there is no Torah”; meaning that while we would all like to have the opportunity to study, we must first meet our physical needs, such as eating. The budget of any organization supports its members’ activities, and there is no price to the feeling we all get when we gather as a community.

Our bylaws state that you must be a member in good standing to receive these important benefits and privileges:

- Complimentary High Holy Days tickets
- Honors on the bimah during weekly and High Holy Days services
- Bar/Bat Mitzvah preparation
- Enrollment in religious school
- Pastoral care (including officiating at life cycle events)
- Participation in Men’s Club, Adult Education, Social Action events and activities, etc.
- Attendance at member-only events
- Opportunity for inclusion on the Tree of Life and Memorial Boards
- Discounted rentals of the temple space, including the social hall and kitchen for events
- Notification of Hillel Happenings, the Temple newsletter

You may elect to pay dues and fees on a monthly, quarterly, or annual basis. Options include paying by cash/check, credit card or automatic transfers from your bank account.

We understand that some may be managing challenges at home and might benefit from a temporary abatement (adjustment of fees) of your dues. All conversations are confidential. If you want to request an abatement of dues and other fees, please reach out to a member of the Abatement Committee and we will contact you to discuss a plan. Temple Beth Hillel Abatement Committee

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL UPDATES

Our Youth Group and Madrichim put on a live-action reading of Megillat Esther for the religious school students on Purim. It brought many laughs, as students and parents alike fulfilled one of the mitzvot of Purim! Immediately afterward, students and their families were able to enjoy the annual Temple Beth Hillel Purim Carnival!

Special thanks to our Youth Group, Mrs. Chaimovitch, and our Youth Group Parents for all of your help with the carnival! Some very tasty Hamantaschen were baked by Mrs. Liebman & Mrs. Waine (and friends), as well as the Brei-ther family – we thank all of them as well! Thanks to the many religious school parents who stepped in wherever it was needed; it takes a village, and our village is such a special one!

TORAH PORTIONS

Parashat Sh'mini: Leviticus 9:1-11:47; Exodus 12:1-20 Shemini ("Eighth") opens with the consecration of the Mishkan (Tabernacle). Two of Aaron's sons are consumed by a fire sent from God when they attempt to offer a "strange fire." God describes the animals, birds, and fish that are permissible and prohibited for consumption, as well as some laws of ritual purity.

Parashat Tazria: Leviticus 12:1-13:59 Tazria ("She Bears Seed") opens by describing the purification process for a woman after childbirth. It then describes different forms of tzaraat, a discoloration condition on skin or clothing, and the requirement of an infected person to dwell alone outside the camp and be inspected by a priest.

Parashat M'tzora: Leviticus 14:1-15:33 Metzora opens by describing the purification process and accompanying sacrifices for one infected with tzaraat, a discoloration condition on the skin. It then describes the process of treating a house infected with tzaraat and the ritual impurity generated by certain bodily discharges.

Chol HaMo-eid Pesach Holidays Exodus 33:12-34:26 Moses said to the Eternal, "See, You say to me, 'Lead this people forward,' but You have not made known to me whom You will send with me. Further, You have said, 'I have singled you out by name, and you have, indeed, gained My favor.'"
