August is both the height of summer and the end of vacation, beginning with freedom and morphing into something else, not enslavement certainly, but an acceptance...of what we cannot help but change into? The poet Rich Orloff shares his thoughts on something very similar, and I bring those words here:

A Prayer for the Bridge

by Rich Orloff

Cross the bridge
 To the people you love
 To the people ready and eager to love you

They exist
 But they can't pull you over the bridge
 They can only welcome you when you arrive

Don't push yourself across the bridge
 Don't drag yourself
 Run and dance if you want
 Or walk as slowly as you wish

And when you're halfway across the bridge
 Take in the view of both sides
 You'll be tempted to turn around
 Be kind to that temptation

You can always return to where you've been
 But you'll never know the joy of the other side
 Unless you summon the courage to keep walking

And when you arrive
 Rest a moment
 This is the land that's been promised
 To everyone willing to take the journey

Saturday Morning Shabbat Services Update

On Saturday mornings at Temple Beth Hillel, when there is not a minyan, i.e. 10 Jews over the age of 13 physically present, no group Kaddish is recited nor is Torah read from the scroll. Shabbat morning services without these elements are brief, about 20 minutes. TBH now has Torah study beginning at 9 a.m. and, if there is a minyan, a full Shabbat morning service at 10:15 a.m.

Special scheduled Shabbat morning services including Family Discussion Shabbats and B'Mitzvah ceremonies will continue as previously scheduled, beginning at 9 a.m.

The Religious Practices Committee will continue to discuss designating one Shabbat morning service a month, in consideration of those who would like to come to say Kaddish with a minyan, or simply pray in the morning.

Friends of TBH will meet for a meal on Thursday, August 8 at 5:30 p.m. at The Nutmeg Restaurant

297 S. Main Street, East Windsor

please contact either Barb Klein (barbek@aol.com,

Religious School Registration

The time has come to enroll your student(s) for religious school for the 2024-25 school year!

<https://forms.gle/MeiEG4FYktWXvB9A6>

A colorful registration poster for Temple Beth Hillel's religious school. The background is a blue grid with various school-related icons: a lightbulb, paper clips, a globe, a pencil, pushpins, and a map. The text is centered on a white background with a pink border. At the top, the Temple Beth Hillel logo (a tree) and name are in a blue box. Below that, the main title 'Registration Now Open' is in large, bold, blue and yellow letters. An orange button contains the text 'FOR RELIGIOUS SCHOOL'. Below that, 'for the 2024-25 school year' is in bold black. A star icon precedes 'CLASSES BEGIN ON SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8'. Another orange button says 'Register Here'. At the bottom, 'QUESTIONS? CONTACT US AT RSC@TBHSW.ORG' is written in blue.

Honey Money

The gift of a jar of honey had been a longstanding tradition at TBH. Your Development Committee is working to bring back this delicious tradition, but we need your help.

Beginning on Erev Rosh HaShana, there will be a gift bag containing a honey jar, a New Year's card, a pledge card and other surprises waiting for each of you at the temple.

How does this work? Like in other years, you will have the opportunity to make a contribution to have your name put on the New Year's card that is given to the entire congregation. In this newsletter, look for the order forms to have your name entered on the card.

You may also choose to make a donation if you want your family members' names in the Yom Kippur Yizkor book. There will be a separate order form if you wish to name your departed loved ones in the Yizkor book.

In order to assist in our fundraising efforts, also consider a donation to help cover the costs of the honey.

Please also give generously through your annual high holiday pledge. Every dollar counts to help keep our beloved temple afloat!

Shana Tovah v'Metukah! Wishing you a sweet and good year!

TBH's New Year Greeting Card

Due Date: Monday, September 2, 2024

We hope you will add your family to our holiday greeting this year. It's our way of joining together to greet every TBH family in our congregation. Even though the High Holidays are late this year, please do not delay responding if you want to be included. The New Year's card is a TBH fundraiser and profits are used to support the Temple.

A family listing cost is $18.00.

How do you want your name(s) listed on the card?

(Examples: Marcia, Alissa, & Drew Heneson; Marcia Heneson and Family; or The Heneson Family)

Indicate the exact wording you want listed on the line below. Please print clearly.

Due Date: September 2, 2024!!!

Please send the order form and a check for $18.00 made out to Temple Beth Hillel with your order form.

Call Sam in the Temple office if you wish to pay using a credit card

Questions: Text Helena at (860) 478-6188 or email at helena.friedman@gmail.com

If you want your name on the New Year's card but find yourself running out of time, contact Helena before the deadline and then send in your payment to make sure you are included on our holiday card.

Temple Beth Hillel Memorial Book

Deadline for Participation: Friday, October 4th

The TBH Memorial Book will be distributed at our Yizkor Service during Yom Kippur. Every Memorial Plaque in the sanctuary is included along with the family boxes. If you do not attend this service, you can pick up a copy of the book at the Temple office after the holidays.

If you ordered a family box last year, I will email the list of names that appeared in the Memorial Book last year. If you wish to renew your box, please email your confirmation to mheneson@gmail.com or text 860-306-5238. Please let me know if you wish to add additional names or change anything in your family box.

If you want to create a new family box this year, please send me a list of the names you wish to remember and how you would like your name(s) to appear. (Example – Remembered by: Alissa and Marcia Heneson or The Heneson Family). Send your list to mheneson@gmail.com or mail the completed form below to the office.

Please send payment of $10 per name or $36 per family box to TBH, 20 Baker Lane, South Windsor, CT 06074. Indicate that this payment is for the Memorial Book. Call Sam, our administrative assistant, at 860-282-8466 if you wish to pay by credit card.

If you have any questions, please contact Marcia Heneson at mheneson@gmail.com or call/text her at 860-306-5238.

Include the form below if you want to create a family memorial box and prefer to send a print copy to the office instead of communicating by email. Please print legibly.

Each family box and the list of individual names will be preceded by: "In Loving Memory."
Please indicate how you wish to be listed following "Remembered By."

(Ex. The Heneson Family; Marcia Heneson & Family; or Marcia, Alissa, & Drew Heneson).

TORAH PORTIONS

Parashat Matot-Masei Numbers 30:2-36:13 Matot (“Tribes”) opens with laws about vows, and continues to describe the Israelites’ war against the Midianites and the allocation of spoils. The tribes of Reuben and Gad request to dwell outside of the Land of Israel, and Moses acquiesces on the condition that they help conquer it. Masei (“Travels”), the final Torah portion in the Book of Numbers, opens with a list of places that the Israelites traveled in the desert. God commands the Israelites to destroy idolatry in the Land of Israel, outlines Israel’s boundaries, and details the laws of cities of refuge for accidental killers.

Parashat Devarim Deuteronomy 1:1-3:22 Devarim (“Words”) is the first Torah portion in the Book of Deuteronomy, the final book of the Torah. In it, Moses recounts events from the Israelites’ travels in the desert, like the appointment of judges, the sin of the spies, and the wars with the Emorite kings Sihon and Og.

Parashat Vaetchanan Deuteronomy 3:23-7:11 Vaetchanan (“I Pleaded”) opens as Moses describes his pleading with God to be allowed into the Land of Israel. Moses warns the Israelites not to pursue idolatry and recounts the giving of the Ten Commandments. The portion also contains the Shema, a declaration of faith and a central text in Jewish prayer.

Parashat Eikev Deuteronomy 7:12-11:25 In Eikev (“As a Result”), Moses recounts events that happened in the desert, including the manna, the golden calf, and Aaron’s death. Moses describes the blessings God will bestow upon the Israelites if they follow God’s law and the punishments they will encounter if they disobey.

Parashat Re’eh Deuteronomy 11:26-16:17 Re’eh (“See”) details a series of laws in advance of the Israelites’ entrance into the Land of Israel. These include the obligation to destroy idolatry, laws of tithing and charity, dietary laws, holiday laws, and the prohibition of offering sacrifices outside of the place designated by God.
